WHO MAKES THE BAD TIMES?

The New York Sun's Explanation Mere for the arrest of the latter. Persiflage.

New York, April 6 .- The Sun has a notable editorial under the caption "What Makes the Bad Times," in reply to a correspondent who attributes the depression to the withdrawal of National Bank notes from circulation. The Sun shows that money was as the United States, it can not be attributed to a gold standard or to tariff laws, nor to anything in the condition of our shipping and ocean transportation, "for it exists in England, where there is an unprecedented extension of the merchant marine," just as severely, or even more so, than in this country, where, for many years, our merchant marine has been gradually declining. nor yet is it caused by failure of the crops, or by wars or famines in any part of the world. The crops have been generally good for several years, and no wars or famines of any account have existed, yet we may say in a general way that the depression is the result of overproduction. That is to say, of spending money and labor in ways that are not profitable and that give no return. The San concludes as follows: "Yet, while this great collapse is miles from Ashville, Tenn. Foul play is million such speeches sent me, and never indisputable and irresistible, we may be well | suspected, but no clew is obtained. The contented over the fact that it is not so de-structive as it might be, and that business is quite as good and the situation of the country quite as encouraging as we ought to expect. There are many workers out of employment and hardly an enterprise making much money, yet most people are getting enough to eat and enough to wear, and are living along in happiness with reasonable | Jesquin Valley. The State has now had all economy. The country is rich and sound at | the rain necessary to insure good average the core, and when all the inflated and de-Insive concerns are settled up and cleared away, we shall find that we are a great better off than the philosophers of calamity and despair have imagined."

Faneral of Mr. Neff. Special to the Sentinel,

GREENCASTLE, April 6,-The funeral of citizen and newly appointed Postmaster, Hon. Willis G. Neff, took place on yesterday afternoon, from his residence, near Ladoge, Hon. Willis G. Neff and family, were in attendance. The death of Mr. Neff was very unexpected to his friends. He ate a hearty dinner on Saturday, and died that evening. The first intimation the friends here had was a dispatch on Saturday night informing them of his death. Mr. John Neil can be classed among the old settlers-if not one of the pioneers of Indiana. He was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, (now Boyle County.) July 18, 1800, and would have been eighty five years of age in July. He was married in the year 1825, to Miss Elizabeth Kenton, of the same county, who was a niece. of "Old Simon Kenton." the famous Indian fighter; his widow still survives him. In 1833 be removed and settled in Hendricks County, Indiana, near where the town of North Salem new is, and continued at that place until 1865, when he removed to a farm near Ladoga. He was a Democrat of the Jackson school, and never failed to vote the Democratic ticket since 1824, his last vote being cast for Cleveland and Hendricks. His integrity was never questioned by friend or foe, and honesty was one of his leading characteristics. He was a good citizen, a kind husband and father.

SEYMOUR, Ind., April 6 .- Alexander B. Hanners, of Salt Creek Township, usually a bright, sharp and intelligent young man, but has recently lost his mind, was taken to the Insane Asylum at Indianapolis by Sheriff Hugh A. Burrell to day.

Charlie Calloway, who was nominated for City Marshal of Vincennes by the Democrats on Saturday, was born and raised in this county. He possesses genuine Jackson County grit; will be elected, and will discharge his duty with credit to himself and and honor to the people at the "Old Post."

Bobbie, the thirteen-year-old son of Captain Joseph Balsley, and two other boys of about the same age, mysteriously left their homes here on Friday, since which time no tidings of their whereabouts have been learned or which way they went. Their parents are using every effort to hear of them, and sre heart-broken with grief. It is feared that they might have gone to White River, near here, secured a craft and set sail down the stream, in which event they are probably drowned.

PITTSBURG, April 6 .- The river coal miners' strike ended to-day in favor of the strikers, and the coal miners resumed work this morning at the advance. The action of Walton & Co., the most extensive operators on the Monogahela River, in conceding the increase to their men, on Saturday, broke the backbone of the strike and a general stampede of the other operators to resume operations followed. Two other mines started up to day and the balance will be working before the end of the week. The strike lasted four weeks, and the strikers are jubiin the situation of the railroad men's strike.

General Grant asked the guard what the man wanted, and was told that he wanted to go to Washington. The General then asked why he was not permitted to come into the car, and was answered that "This car is a special car for General Grant and his staff." The General replied quickly, "Let him come in. I only occupy one seat in this car." This was the first intimation the gnard nad that General Grant and his staff were in the car. The General then asked what the other men were form, and being told that they wanted to go to Washington, he said, "Let all who can crowd in get in." Contained in a Letter to Congressman Stewart of Middleburg in 1883,

| New York Sun. | MIDDLEBURY, Vt., March 31 -When Hon. John W. Stewart, of Middleburg, first took his seat in the lower House of Congress as the representative of the First Vermont District, in December, 1883, he received a letter of satirical good advice from a distinguished Vermont Democrat, who had long been a personal and professional friend. The letter was passed around at the time among Mr. Stewart's friends in both Houses of Congreen. The letter is of public interest now, from the fact that the distinguished Vermont Democrat who wrote it is Hon. Edward J. Phelps of Burlington, who has just been appointed Minister to England. The letter contains the following maxims:

1. Always vote in favor of a motion to adjourn, and if the period of adjournment is in question, vote for the longest time and the earliest day. Vote steadily against all other propositions whatsoever. (a) There is already legislation enough for the next 500 years. (b) No honest man wants any more. (c) Even unconstitutional bills for the further enlargement of the negro should form no exception to this rule. 3. Make no speeches. Nobody attends to congressional oratory when delivered. When read one in my life, 4. Do not allow yourself to be drawn into aspersions upon the memory of Guy Fawkes, He has been much censured by shallow med. History will in the end do him justice. Before you have been long in Congress you will perceive that one such man nowadays, with better luck, might do the country more service than a hundred Presidential candidates or Christian statesmen. 5. Do not be seen much in public in the company of Republicans. Outside of New England they are not, as a rule, savory. Some associations will be tolerated, though known to exist, when decently weiled. But there is no excuse for parading them in pub-

6. Practice rigid economy. The experience of the average Congressman shows it is possible by judicious frugality to save about $100,000 each session out of his salary. Thus the true patriot in standing by his country makes the country stand by him.

7. Cultivate assiduously all newspaper 8. Do not become a caudidate for the Presidency. The idea that the country is for General Grant and the two or three | anxious to elect you to that office is chimerofficers with him, and they did not attract | ical. Nor has the country anything to do with it, except to vote as it told.

> In case of doubt, take the trick. 10. Keep your nostrils open, your mouth shut, your head cool, and your feet warm. Avoid congressional whiskey, Bob Ingersoli, District of Columbia.

11. Beware of statesmer, with great moral ideas. You will find immoral ideas more 12. Whatever happens, do not relinquish hope. As Cicero observes, nil desperandum, do not despair. You have once been a respected member of the Addison County bar. Resolve to regain that position. Live. for the future and live down the present.

Purity in butter and cheese constitutes its chief value in the markets of the world. It may be perfectly pure after it has lost the fragrance imparted to it by the nature of the food taken. Any peculiarity of herbage or other food is imparted to the milk, Poisons may be conveyed to milk in food. The chief value of butter over any other fat oil, land, tallow, etc., is the presance of grateful odor. This may add from 25 to 50 per cent. to its value. It does not involve 3 per cent. in the cost of manufacture.

Always set out a row of evergreens, as well as shade trees, along the front of the farm house, as they add largely to the value of the farm by rendering it more attractive.

years a sufferer from Salt Rheum. It followed upon an attack of Erysipelas, for which I was for a long time under medical treatment. I placed myself again in the hands of the physicians who did, I have no doubt, all that could be done. One thing is sure, however, I was none the better for all the medicine they gave me. The painful and unsightly disease made continual progress, until I began to fear I should never get rid of it. By means of one of those accidents that often result in so much blessing I had my attention called to your FAVORITE REMEDY, which I was told would surely do me good. I used it, and within a much shorter time than I would have believed possible. I received a permanent cure. I am now perfectly free from Salt Rheum. What a comfort this is, and how it places your wonderful medicine in my opinion, you may guess at, but never know. I keep it now constantly in the house as a family medicine. Yours truly, MRS. DINAH PHAIR.

Mrs. Phair sometime since went on a visit to Kansas, found a case of Salt Rheum, could not get FAVORITE REMEDY, sent to New York City for it, and cured the case. For all diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, Bladder and Digestive Organs, Dr. David Ken-nedy's FAVORITE REMEDY, Rondout, N. Y.
